DETAILED ACTION

Response to Appeal Brief

1. The appeal brief filed on 3/11/2002 is entered. The examiner reexamined the application carefully in view of the arguments presented in the Appeal Brief, and chose to reopen prosecution, withdrawing prior rejection described in paper # 13, mailed 12/13/2001.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 23-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sawada ( U.S. Patent 6,078,317 ) and further in view of Fujimoto ( U.S. Patent 5,912,710 ) .

As to claims 23-25, Sawada teaches every claimed limitation except image being stored on a DVD with resolution 720X480. Fujimoto teaches image being stored on DVD with resolution 720x480 ( column 8, lines 14-18 ). It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to utilize the method/system taught by Sawada then provide a modification by storing the image in a DVD with resolution 720x480 to obtain the method/system Sawada modified by Fujimoto because it would result in greater usage in a variety of video applications. Although Sawada modified by Fujimoto does not expressly teach a computer monitor display; TV display and computer display are in analogous art of visual communications.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 26 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
